JACKIE L. OWNBY, JR. JOINS COMMERCIAL BANK AS VICE PRESIDENT & MARKET MANAGER FOR COCKE/SEVIER COUNTIES

HARROGATE, TN. (November 21, 2016)- Commercial Bank, based in Harrogate, Tenn., is pleased to announce the placement of Jackie L. Ownby, Jr. as Vice President & Market Manager for Cocke and Sevier Counties.

Adam Robertson, President of Commercial Bank, explained, “Jackie will be a tremendous addition to the Commercial Bank team in Cocke and Sevier Counties as he brings his education and experiences in banking together with our mission of creating positive experiences for every customer, every day.”

Ownby comes to Commercial Bank with twenty-five years of banking experience. He began his banking career with Tennessee State Bank in 1991, where he worked until 2005 as a loan officer. Ownby then went to work at National Bank of Tennessee in 2005, where he worked until 2013 as Vice President and commercial loan officer and later on as the special assets director. He returned to Tennessee State Bank in 2013 to serve as vice president and loan officer, until coming to Commercial Bank. Ownby holds several banking degrees, including Commercial and Consumer Lending, as well as a general banking degree from The Southeastern School of Banking at Vanderbilt University, and a graduate degree in banking from The Graduate School of Banking at Louisiana State University.

Ownby was born and raised in Sevier County, where he now resides with his wife, Melissa. “I have been a farmer with my father all my life, raising cattle. I have been associated with Newport most of my life. We have always done business with Wilson Livestock in Newport since I was a little kid and still do to this day,” Ownby states. He and his wife attend Pathways Church. He loves spending time with his wife and his special three-year-old niece, Londyn Meyer, and also enjoys working around his home and family farm.
